

Consultant & Trainer

Stephanie Tiling

Philosophy:

“We cannot direct the wind. But we can adjust the sails” (Aristotle). The focus of Stephanie Tiling's work as a trainer is on developing personal strengths, personal growth and the personal success of participants in achieving goals. She places a particular emphasis on a holistic, experience-oriented and sustainable transfer of knowledge in this respect with a high degree of practical relevance. Technical and emotional components are linked in a manner that ensure participants enjoy the greatest level of training success. At the same time, fun and pleasure are indispensable elements in this process.

Profile:

- Management assistant degree (University of Regensburg), MBA (Murray State University, KY, USA) with an emphasis on sales and marketing, financing

Professional experience:

- Trainer and business coach at Commax Consulting GmbH & Co. KG
- Freelance project manager, trainer and business coach
- Freelance project manager and consultant in strategic marketing and business development
- Many years of experience as an executive in marketing, sales, consumer insights, product and innovation development/management in national and international companies in the consumer goods industry

Consultant & Trainer

Stephanie Tiling

Additional qualifications:

- Certified trainer for methodological work with seminar actors, BDVT
- Business coach and trainer at the Educational Institute for Career and Communication (Bildungsinstitut für Beruf und Kommunikation – bbk München)

Authority on:

- Sales and management training
- Competence and executive development
- Coaching of specialised personnel and executives
- Service and customer orientation
- Communication training
- Project management

Contact:

Commax Consulting GmbH & Co. KG

Südliche Münchner Str. 10a | 82031 Grünwald bei München

Tel. 089 360 384-0 | Fax 089 360 384-38

Email info@commax.de